STEP 1

Once convicted, apply for a restricted license order.

STEP 2

Report to your local VASAP office. Choose LifeSafer Ignition Interlock as your vendor. VASAP will send your installation authorization form to us.

STEP 3

Submit proof of installation to your VASAP supervisor.

STEP 4

VASAP will notify the DMV that the interlock has been installed.

STEP 5

Go to the DMV to get a restricted license.

After a DUI conviction, Virginia requires the installation of an ignition interlock device in a driver's vehicle in order to obtain a restricted driving license. You may obtain your specific reinstatement requirements by requesting a personal Driver Transcript and a Compliance Summary. Use these documents to assist in reinstating your driving privileges
